The Beta Phi Mu Omicron Chapter's Annual Fall Presentation

Wednesday, October 30th
Reception (with light refreshments) at 6:30pm. Talk begins at 7:00pm.

Wikipedia & Cultural Heritage Institutions: Opportunities for Partnership

Dorothy Howard

*Resident Wikipedian at METRO Library Consortium in NYC*

The discussion will cover:

- How Wikipedia can be used by librarians, archivists, and educators
- GLAM-Wiki movement (Galleries, Libraries, Archives, and Museums and Wikipedia)
- Wikipedia's role in supporting broader open data efforts
- How Wikipedia can contribute to ongoing professional development
- and much more!

The event is being co-sponsored by:
Beta Phi Mu Omicron Chapter, LIS Department, Rutgers University Libraries, Rutgers SC&I Alumni Association, and the NJ Center for the Book

Scholarly Communications Center
4th floor of Alexander Library
169 College Avenue, New Brunswick, NJ

Have questions? Email Kay Cassell at kcassell@rutgers.edu